STORM

Has Been Responsible for Eight Deaths

SUFFERING IS TERRIBLE

Has Never Been Eclipsed in the History of New York

Men Eager to Work But Fall Fainting from Cold and Hunger. Coal 30 Cents Per Pail.

New York, Jan. 25.—Scenes of suffering never eclipsed in the history of the metropolis are following the removal of yesterday's 15 inches of snowfall from the blocked down town sections. An army of snow shovelers has been recruited from the ranks of the unemployed and these men present a pitiable appearance as they staggeringly attack the giant drifts.

Seventy-five per cent of the men employed are insufficiently clothed, and many of them are actually suffering for want of bread. They are dressed in thin summer clothing, without either overcoats or gloves. Of the 800 men who marched from the Bureau of Street Cleaning at midnight, to clear away the snow, more than half had to quit by 9 o'clock today. Their strength was not equal to the work in the cold north wind, with the mercury but 15 degrees above zero. The exhausted ones were taken to hospitals.

Fuel in the poorer sections has gone up to almost prohibitive figure. Already eight deaths have resulted directly from the cold.

There are 3000 men working. For the first time in many years there are plenty of applicants for jobs. The cold is working great hardship to the tenement sections, where coal is at a premium.

The usual price of 12 cents a pail charged by the storekeepers, has been raised to 30 cents, with but a scant supply on hand. The big wagons of the dealers cannot penetrate the narrow streets of the east and west sides which are blocked high with snow, and those who cannot keep a reserve supply of fuel on hand are the sufferers. Men, women and children left their homes last night and applied for lodging at the municipal lodging houses and at the temporary shelters erected on the recreation piers.

NORWALK GIRL ELOPES.

Norwalk, Jan. 25.—Charles P. Betz, a traveling salesman for the Page Fence company, of Adrian, Mich., and Miss Nellie Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Mills of this city, yesterday eloped to Detroit and were married.

VETO POWER NOT FAVORED BY GOVERNOR

OHIO'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE ALSO OPPOSED TO INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

Although a Farmer and Member of State Grange—Gov. Harris Makes Declaration Friday.

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—Governor Andrew L. Harris spoke out plainly Friday upon the subject of direct legislation, or the initiative and referendum, stating that he was unqualified, against it, and that if he had a vote in the general assembly he would not support the proposition. He added, too, that his statement was not meant as a "crack of the whip." Besides this the governor declared that he did not believe in the veto power. This places him in a peculiar position. He would not say, however, that he would not exercise this right. The chief executive is a farmer, and an enthusiastic member of the State Grange.

His rural brethren, through the Ohio State Grange, the leading farmers' organization, recommended adoption of the initiative and referendum at the last state convention held in Kenton.

OFFICIALS

Of Haytian Government Are Terrorized and Take Refuge in United States Consulate.

States gunboat Paducah, left New Orleans for St. Marie, Haiti, to protect American interests, and to be within call in case the revolution spreads into Santo Domingo. The gun boat Eagle, is now patrolling the coast from St. Marie to Gonaves. The city of Port de Paix is in the hands of revolutionists and the Haitian government officials, terrorized, have taken refuge in the American consulate.

FOXY FORAKER

ATTEMPTS TO GET CASE FROM ALLEN COUNTY INTO FEDERAL COURTS.

But Supreme Court of Ohio Will Decide it at Same Time as Fracas From Franklin.

Columbus, Jan. 25.—The Supreme court Saturday permitted the filing and heard the arguments in chambers in the case of Prosecutor Welty of Allen county, to prevent the holding of Republican state primaries under the Bronson law. Welty raises the question that the primaries contravene the 14th amendment to the federal constitution, guaranteeing equal protection to all. It is suspected that the Forakerites in order to carry the case to the United States courts, and delay the final decision until after February 11, when the primaries are to take place. The Ohio Supreme court will decide this case, along with the Franklin county one, probably next Tuesday.

FOUND VESSEL BY WIRELESS ALL ARE SAFE

New York, Jan. 25.—The steamer Princess Anne of the Old Dominion line is safe. The wireless station at Coney Island picked up a message saying that she is off the northeast end light ship. All are well and she will dock this afternoon. It had been feared the vessel had been lost with 140 people.

BRAMLEY'S HOUSE BURNS. Cleveland, Jan. 25.—Fire yesterday destroyed the country home of M. F. Bramley in Lake avenue. The loss, including the furnishings, is $125,000. Mrs. Bramley, who is ill, was carried from the house with difficulty. Mr. Bramley is in the east.

AGED WOMEN CREMATED. Bridgeport, Jan. 25.—Margaret Fulton, aged 86, and Jane Fulton, 82, sisters were burned to death in their home near St. Clairsville Friday. The clothes of Margaret Fulton, who sat in an invalid chair are thought to have caught fire from an open grate and Jane was burned in trying to extinguish the blaze.

SHONTS WELCOMED THOROUGH INVESTIGATION

MISS MARGUERITE SHONTS.

New York, Jan. 25.—Following a visit of appraisers and inspectors from the custom house to the home of Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Metropolitan company at 125 East Twenty-fifth street for the purpose of finding out whether or not payment of duty had been evaded on consignments brought from Europe by Mrs. Shonts and the Misses Marguerite and Theodore Shonts. Mr. Shonts announced that $220 was due the government. This amount he said was determined upon after the inspectors had made a thorough search and examination.

ORDER

Issued at Tokio Forbids Emigration to America

OF JAPANESE LABORERS

Canada, Mexico, Hawaii Are Also Under the Imperial Ban

Big Steamship Lines Foreseeing the Hardship Have Appealed to Have Order Modified.

Tokio, Jan. 25.—An imperial order issued today, prohibits all Japanese emigration to the Hawaiian islands, excepting in the case of relatives of Japanese already residing there. The order is being strongly opposed by the steamship companies and the representatives of the management of all of the big lines, after being served with the order, personally appealed to the foreign office to at least modify it. They met with an absolute refusal.

Stringent orders have also been issued to all officials that the prohibition of emigration of laborers to America and Canada must be rigidly enforced. In order that there shall be no subterfuge emigration to Mexico is also placed under the ban. The reply of the United States to the latest memorandum from Japan in connection with the emigration negotiations is expected by the foreign office today.

Viscount Aoki, deposed ambassador to the United States, landed today and was hurried at once to Tokio on a special train. He is now in conference with foreign minister Hayashi. Because of his arrival, Viscount Hayashi has postponed until January 30 his speech to the diet, outlining definitely the plans of the government for the restriction of emigration to America and Canada.

ICE GAVE WAY

Coshocton, Jan. 25.—Donald Laughlin while out skating with two other playmates Friday afternoon broke through the ice and was drowned. At a late hour the body had not been recovered. John Gault and Ralph Longwill, who were with him, both had narrow escapes.

Most of us have a boxing acquaintance with the inevitable.

SENOR OSMENA SPEAKER OF THE PHILIPPINE ASSEMBLY

SENOR DON SERGIO OSMENA.

MANILA, P. I., Jan. 25.—There has never been a time when the understanding between the Filipinos and Americans was as complete as now. The members of the Assembly reflect this sentiment. The prophets of evil have I think, been confounded by the conservatism shown by the chosen representatives of our people, but I can honestly say I am not surprised by this conservatism, for I know the hearts of my people." So spoke Senor Osmena, Speaker of the Philippine Assembly, the man who stands out today as first and foremost of his race. Nobody hearing him could doubt the sincerity of his words, the honesty of his belief.

INNOVATION

IN THE HISTORY OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN OHIO AND THE MIDDLE WEST.

Methodist Minister Will Occupy Pulpit of Old Trinity in Toledo by Special Dispensation.

Toledo, O., Jan. 25.—For the first time in Episcopal history in Ohio and the middle-west the pulpit of an Episcopal church will be occupied Sunday by a minister who does not belong to the Episcopal clergy.

This unusual service will be witnessed at old Trinity church in this city Sunday evening, when Dr. R. D. Hollington, pastor of St. Paul M. E. church will deliver an address to the Knights of King Arthur. The service is a special one, licensed by the bishop.

The general convention of the Episcopal church made it possible. Up to that time the law of the church prohibited anyone, other than a member of the church to deliver an address in the church.

FOUR WITNESSES WILL COMPLETE THAW'S DEFENSE

First Drafts of Hypothetical Question Submitted by Defendant's Attorneys to State.

New York, Jan. 25.—With the arrival today of four witnesses who will complete the defense in the Thaw case, Attorney Littleton can make good his promise to Justice Downing to close for the defense Monday night. The first drafts of the hypothetical question were furnished to Jerome and Garvan by Dan O'Reilly today. Later on the attorneys will confer.

The real battle is to come when Jerome will move for a reading of the entire testimony taken before the lunacy commission at the last trial. Jerome holds that this shows that if Thaw was insane when he killed White, he is still of unsound mind.

PATRICK DOLAN DENIED A SEAT

Indianapolis, Jan. 25.—Patrick Dolan of the Pittsburgh district, by the unanimous vote of the miners' convention this morning, was denied a seat in their national convention.

SHOT BY HIS BROTHER.

Springfield, Jan. 25.—Harry Greese, aged eight years, was fatally wounded last night by his brother Roy, six years of age, while they were at play. Roy picked up a Robert rifle and called out, "I'll shoot you." With this exclamation the boy fired and the bullet entered the brain of his brother just above the right eye.

When a girl drops a fellow, he not usually consider him beneath her.

FRIGHTFUL CHARGES OF MALTREATMENT OF FEEBLE MINDED CHILDREN IN ASYLUM

LINCOLN, ILL., Jan. 25.—All Illinois has been wrought up by revelations before the Legislative investigating committee on conditions in the State Asylum for Feeble-Minded Children at Lincoln. If the testimony given under oath is true, feeble-minded children not only have been raised on unprotected radiators, maimed in unprotected machinery, scalded to death in bath tubs, but improper food has been fed to them, they have been stood in a row to have their pockets rifled, and after death their bodies have been cut up for a medical "museum."

COL. WM. VEACH

The "Old Roman" of the Licking County Democracy is Hale and Hearty.

Hale and hearty at the age of 92, Col. Wm. Veach, known as "the Old Roman of Licking county Democracy," is living on Second street, just north of the Blue Jay road, after an eventful life of almost a century. His life has been an interesting one and one well lived.

He was born in Shenandoah county, Va., September 30, 1816, and in 1824 the family moved to Licking county and settled in Newark township. His parents were very poor, and when only nine years of age young Veach went to work for neighbors, getting paid from 15 to 18 cents a day. He took his pay in corn, meat and other produce and occasionally a little pig would be given to him for his services.

When he grew older he could do day labor and received from 25 to 30 cents a day. When not working he attended school. At that early day a poor boy met with many discouragements, but he pushed on and up and in 1841 gained reputation for himself by the order of 1842-43 he taught school in what was then known as the Judge Taylor district, and was decidedly successful.

In the spring of 1847 he was elected a constable for Newton township, and on May 1 in the same year he was appointed deputy sheriff under Sheriff C. L. Porter. In 1844 he was elected sheriff and was re-elected when his term expired. He was appointed deputy United States marshal in 1846.

In 1846 Mr. Veach married Eliza Hollister of Greenup, Kentucky, and of this union four sons were born. Three of them are now dead, but one son, William A. Veach, is a resident of Newark, and is vice president of the Home Building Association and is also manager of the Newark Water company. Again in 1848 Mr. Veach was elected constable, and for a number of years served as a township trustee. He was also president of the Wool Growers' bank, and president of the Licking County Agricultural Society. Later he was appointed general manager of the Licking and Coshocton Coal company.

In politics Mr. Veach was always a Democrat and has represented his party in judicial, senatorial, congressional, state and national conventions. For several years he was chairman of the Democratic Central Committee of Licking county.

Mr. Veach was a driver on the Ohio canal the same time former President James A. Garfield was. For many years he was connected with the L. K. Warner warehouse company, now the Tenner-Morgan company. Mr. Veach is a remarkably well preserved man for his years and is highly respected by all who know him.

PORCH CLIMBERS MAKE BIG HAUL

Cincinnati, Jan. 25.—The residence of J. B. McCracken, general superintendent of the U. S. Playing Card company, was thoroughly ransacked by porch climbers early Saturday and $3000 in jewelry and silverware was taken.

Mr. Employer:

Do you find it rather difficult to obtain competent help? Why not use the want columns of the Daily Advocate?

The Advocate numbers among its readers the most intelligent and fortunate citizens of Newark and Licking county and a man or woman out of employment always secures a paper of quality and responsibility as a medium through which to look for employment. A "Help Wanted" ad will only cost 25 cents for 18 words three insertions.

FIGHT ON NEW LINES TO BE MADE

POLITICIANS IN EMPIRE STATE SCENT A TRICK IN TAFT LETTER.

HUGHES'S MEN CLAIM

That Governor Will Have at Least 300 Votes on the First Ballot. Political Gossip.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Superintendent of Public Works Stevens and other Hughes managers who incline to accept Secretary of War Taft's "surrender" of the New York delegation to Chicago, now prophesy that the governor will have at least 300 votes on the first ballot in the Republican national convention.

Shrewd political manipulators like Chairman Edward Brackett of the Hughes league, scent a trick to place the Roosevelt-Taft managers in charge of the governor's canvass, with the ultimate purpose of swinging the Empire state delegates to the president's final choice after a complimentary vote has been given the "man on Capitol Hill."

President pro tem of the Senate, John Raines is certain that the startling events of the past week have rehabilitated former Governor Benjamin B. Odell Jr., and that he will before long be again the acknowledged state boss.

William Barnes Jr., head of the Roosevelt-Taft forces in this section, declares that the New York delegation can never be instructed for Hughes, "except by whole Republican party," the machine of which the president, he maintains, absolutely controls.

The conflicting utterances above outlined promise a struggle for presidential delegates from this state on entirely new lines and an offensive Hughes campaign in New England, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Wisconsin and the South, where Taft, Knox, Fairbanks and La Follette particularly have secured pledges of support.

CONVENTION WILL END FIGHT SAYS

CHARLES L. KURTZ

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—"Senator Joseph B. Foraker's fight against Taft will end only with the Chicago convention." This statement was made Friday by Charles L. Kurtz in reply to the remark of a political friend that the fight was over. The action of former Lieutenant Governor Warren G. Harding, in making a surrender in advance, is mildly characterized as an "unfortunate blunder." "He simply misunderstood the situation, that is all," says Mr. Kurtz. The latter has been in close touch with Senator Foraker since Thursday and speaks by the card.

REPORT READY FOR PRESIDENT

COMMISSION FINDS NAVAL WHITE-HER'S CHARGES AGAINST THE NAVY UNFOUNDED.

Author Abused Courtesy of Department—May Result in Court Martial of Two Admirals.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The report of the special commission consisting of Rear Admirals Capps and Converse, appointed by the President to investigate the criticisms of the navy made by Henry Reuterdahl is complete.

The report finds: That the charges of Reuterdahl, except in minor instances, are unfounded. It absolves Lieutenant Commander Sims, the President's naval aide, who is charged with furnishing Reuterdahl with information.

It is shown that the navy department invited Reuterdahl aboard the vessels, and his criticism followed these invited trips.

It is shown that Reuterdahl got aboard the ships in the course of the maneuvers last summer upon the ground that he wanted to get data for the construction of a naval trophy.

The report leaves Rear Admirals Melville and McCalla, whose criticisms have been bitter and sweeping, in a bad light. It means that they must deny the statements attributed to them or else stand court-martial.

SELECT NEW TREASURER.

Marion, Jan. 25.—Thrice Illustrious Grand Master M. B. Dickerson of the grand council of Ohio Royal Unseelct Masters Friday appointed Frank H. Marquis of Mansfield as grand treasurer to succeed the late Robt. Hampson, who died recently at Salem, O.

The first anniversary of the Oceola Diving club was celebrated Wednesday evening at Stamp's Hall. The attendance was very large and enthusiastic and the members of the club are highly elated over the prosperous year just ended and with the usual untiring efforts of the Oceola club the entertainment afforded has been the very best. In conducting a strictly invitation dance the club is to be congratulated on their success, and we hope that the dances of the ensuing year will be highly enjoyed by all who are favored with invitations.

Friday evening Mrs. George Drayton of Hudson avenue entertained in a delightful manner with a card party. Euchre was the evening's game and at the conclusion the ladies' souvenir was awarded Mrs. Herbert Harris, while Mr. Harris carried off the trophy for both lone hands and points. An elaborate supper was served the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Erman, Mr. and Mrs. Beckman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harris, Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. D. H. Miller, Mrs. Jesse Elliott, Mrs. David Thompson, Misses Lillian Miller, Josephine Beckman, Mayme Rafferty, Messrs. George Beckman, Dr. Baker and Griffith.

On Friday afternoon at her North Fourth street home, Mrs. F. M. B. Windle was hostess to a charming gathering, the event being a thimble party. The rooms were exquisite with their decorations of carnations and roses of harmonizing hues. The afternoon was pleasantly and profitably spent in sewing, and at five o'clock an elegant supper was served.

The following were guests: Mrs. Samuel Sachs, Mrs. John Sachs, Mrs. A. S. Stephan, Mrs. Charles Hindle, Mrs. Tom Jones, Mrs. S. H. McCabon, Mrs. Charles Matthews, Mrs. Howard Jones, Mrs. Henry Woodbridge, Mrs. E. H. Franklin, Mrs. H. B. Anderson, Mrs. Edward Connors, Mrs. John Goodwin, Mrs. T. A. Cosgrove, Mrs. William Tucker, Mrs. Jesse Elliott, Mrs. Cary Norris, Mrs. J. S. Oxyley, Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Fuller Moore, Mrs. Duncanson, Mrs. Moll Marshall, Misses Margaret Stewart and Miss Moll Marshall.

the afternoon's entertainment by Mrs. John Sachs, Mrs. Samuel Sachs, Mrs. A. S. Stephan, and Miss Camille Windle.

Mrs. W. T. Evans entertained on Thursday evening at her home on North Fourth street with a dinner party, the event being the seventy-sixth birthday anniversary of her husband, Mr. W. T. Evans. The arrangements were very pretty and a very pleasant evening was spent with a few old acquaintances.

The Twentieth Century club met at the home of Mrs. John Ayers on Thursday afternoon. Roll call was answered with current events and this was followed by a short literary program and a business session. Miss Jeanette Ayers rendered a very pretty piano solo and in the guessing contest the trophy was awarded Mrs. W. D. Jones. Dainty refreshments were served the members and following guests: Mrs. Louis Cappell and Mrs. Woods of St. Clairsville.

The Unity Reading Circle held a very pleasant meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Atta Smith on North Fourth street. The following program was rendered:

Roll call—Crumbs from the Wealth of News.

Madagascar—Miss Murphy.
Ceylon—Mrs. Warner.
Reading, Ceylon—Mrs. A. S. Mitchell.
Critic—Mrs. Moore.

The hostess served a dainty repast to club members and the following guests: Mrs. Dr. Day, Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Keiger, Mrs. Carl Evans, and Mrs. Robinson.

ARMSTRONG-MORGAN.

On Saturday morning Mr. Clyde Armstrong of this city, and Miss Goldie Morgan of Bladensburg, were united in marriage. The ceremony was solemnized in Bladensburg. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will probably reside in this city, where they have the best wishes of a host of friends.

DYNAMITE EXPLODES.

Seven Years of Proof.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Henry of Panama, Mo. The world has had thirty-eight years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, la grippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia. Sold under a guarantee at F. D. Hall's drug store, 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

RAINFALL FOR 1907
WAS BELOW AVERAGE
AT LOS VEGAS N. M.

In Spite of Which Most Abundant Crops Were Grown in That Country.

Los Vegas, N. M., Jan. 18.—The rainfall for the year 1907 amounted to exactly eighteen inches or .92 inches less than the average rainfall for the past twenty years. In spite of the fact that there was less rain this year than the average for the past twenty years, better crops could not have been asked for than were raised on the mesa during the past season. This proves conclusively that San Miguel county is adapted to agriculture without irrigation.

What is better is that the rain falls when it is most needed. During the time usually devoted to plowing the months are comparatively dry and during the growing periods, plenty of rain falls. The rainfall by months was as follows:

Month	Inches
January	1.57
February	.01
March	.07
April	2.13
May	2.57
June	.77
July	5.77
August	3.30
September	.22
October	.82
November	.77
December	.20
Total	18.00

The precipitation for June this year was unusual, owing to the fact that only 77 of an inch of rain fell while for 1906, which was nearer the average, there was a rainfall of 1.91 inches.

ADVICE TO RHEUMATICS

Noted Physician Tells How to Prevent and Cure Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

(By Geo. Edmund Flood, M. D.)
If you would avoid Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Troubles be moderate in the consumption of heavy, rich foods, substitute as far as possible soups, broths, fresh milk, and drink water—lots of water. Take plenty of time to eat, and don't eat after you have had enough, even if it does taste good. If your work is confining take a moderate amount of exercise each day in the open air.

Of course, neither diet, water, rest nor exercise will cure these afflictions. I advise them as preventives only. For the benefit of the readers of this article who are now afflicted with Rheumatism, Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Trouble, and desire to be cured quickly, I give below, complete in every detail, the famous prescription which has made me so successful in the treatment of these diseases. It is the most certain cure that I have ever used. It is pleasant to take, it is not expensive, can be filled by any druggist, and I believe it is the greatest prescription for Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Troubles ever written. If you are a sufferer, save this, take it to your druggist and have it filled, or better still, get the ingredients yourself and mix them at home by shaking them up in a bottle:

Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, 1-2 ounce.
Concentrated Barkola Compound, 1 ounce.
Aromatic Elixir, 4 ounces.
Dose, take one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

After you are cured follow the advice I have given you in regard to diet, exercise and water, and you will not need the services of a physician again for these ailments.

AMUSEMENTS

THE CHOIR SINGER.

To the fact that much attractive music in the way of songs of both a popular and semi-classical character are effectively introduced in the action of "The Choir Singer," may be ascribed to a great extent the great success which this refined comedy drama by Carroll Fleming has met during its tour of the larger eastern cities. Mr. W. E. Nankeville, who is the manager of the play has spared no expense in furnishing the organization with a full equipment of the most attractive and artistic scenery and has used equal liberality in engaging a highly talented company in its presentation. "The Choir Singer" will be seen in this city exactly as originally produced in New York, at the Auditorium tonight.

PRaise for Stock Company.

What the Titusville, Pa., Courier has to say about the Rosar Mason Stock company:

"The Rosar Mason Stock company opened a week's engagement at the opera house last evening, presenting 'At the Risk of His Life,' before one of the largest audiences of the season. The company is undoubtedly one of the best that has appeared in this city at popular prices and last night's performance gave the highest satisfaction. Not only was the production an excellent one, but the several parts were in the hands of very competent people. The specialties introduced between acts were fine and were repeatedly encored, included in them was a musical act that alone was worth the price of admission."

At the Auditorium all week, commencing January 27. Matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

ORPHIUM THEATER.

Tonight will conclude this week's offering at the Orphium. The popular play house has been drawing crowded houses all week and last night was no exception. At the first show people were turned away and Manager Baum had to stop the sale of tickets. The aisles were crowded and many stood throughout the entire performance. The second house was also a capacity audience and the Orphium is becoming more and more popular as the season advances. Harry Lakola, the sailor juggler again pleased his many friends as did also De Verne and Van who have made a big hit with Orphium audiences. Zarfella and Mansfield, in "The Crazy Messenger," kept the audience in a continual uproar. You'll miss a treat if you fail to hear Ira Haynes sing the illustrated song, "Since Arrah Wanna Married Barney Carney."

Louis Chevalier and company were the big laugh getters with their playlet, "A Lucky Liar." The moving pictures are good.

Next week is the big bill and you don't want to miss it for it will be a scream. Hickman and Brothers are the big headliners and they are perfect too. Rudolph Askeland and his $2,000 violin will please those who are fond of music and Ross Sisters, singers and dancers, are said to be one of the best teams in the business. Monroe and St. Claire in a comedy sketch are fine. Be there for the opening matinee and evening performance.

Fifth Street Baptist Church. There was an increased attendance at the services last night. The singing under the leadership of Prof. Flora was soul stirring and his solo so beautifully rendered recalled to many present the entreatings words of loved ones gone over to the other shore. The prayers seemed to come from hearts overflowing with the Spirit's power. The pastor too, in his plain and instructive way told of man's best condition and what Christ gave up, endured and suffered to bring the lost one back to the fold. Altogether the services were truly such as to bring cheer to every Christian heart.

END OF THIRD WEEK

Wheels of Legislature Are Just Getting Fairly Started.

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—Not much real progress was made this week in the work of the legislature. A large number of bills introduced did something toward getting the committees to work, and the calendar will soon begin to assume ample proportions. Both house and senate passed quite a number of bills originating within themselves.

The feature of the week was the debate before the senate temperance committee by advocates and opponents of the Rose county option bill. Senator Drake, chairman of the committee, is undecided whether to give opponents of the bill another hearing next week before the committee goes into executive session on the measure. More petitions from both sides are expected next week, as the "field work" on the bill is known to be going on as actively as ever.

Just what is meant by the action of the senate in switching the initiative and referendum resolution from the committee on elections to the judiciary committee is uncertain. This resolution was adopted by the senate two years ago, but the outlook at present is rather dubious. An insidious influence against the resolution is believed to be moving among the members, but just what it is nobody positively knows. It is intimated that certain Republican interests want the resolution held up until after the state Republican convention, which is only six weeks away, so that the convention can dodge the proposition to endorse the resolution and give it a place on the ballot, which the convention will surely be asked to do if the resolution goes through before March 3. Recent approval by Senators Foraker and Dick of the proposal to submit the initiative and referendum amendment to the constitution to a vote of the people at the coming election may have had something to do with the adverse movement that is going on quietly against the resolution, because the initiative and referendum was one of the principal features of the Oklahoma state constitution which Secretary Taft advised the voters of that new state to defeat last year.

In the house the features of the week were the passing of the two child labor bills of the state factory inspection department and the Metzger lobby bill.

This second child labor bill provides that "no child under 14 shall be employed, permitted or suffered to work in or in connection with any factory or workshop." Their working in stores, hotels, offices for telephone, telegraph companies, etc., is covered in the first bill, which was passed Tuesday.

The liability bill, a measure of great importance to workmen, especially railway employees, would abolish in suits for personal damages the doctrine of assumed risk and the fellow-servant law, and modifies the doctrine of contributory negligence by establishing a new rule of comparative negligence, by providing that the fact that the employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery where his contributory negligence was slight and that of the employer was greater in comparison. But the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employee. All questions of negligence and contributory negligence shall be for the jury to determine.

A young man should learn to say "no," especially in leap year.

There is generally more discord in a church choir than the music would indicate.

PLOT BARED

To Stampede Gathering of Tippecanoe Club to Foraker at Meeting in Honor of McKinley Day.

Cleveland, Jan. 25.—A plot to stampede to Foraker the gathering of the Tippecanoe club and its guests here, January 29, in celebration of McKinley day was bared Friday night.

It became known that the Foraker men have united in urging Foraker, who is invited, but given no place on the program, and quoted as intending to be present, to attend.

Foraker men intend to raise such a cry for Foraker when Secretary Taft, who is to be the chief speaker, has ceased speaking, so as to compel the senator to speak. It is to be left to a chance that he will launch into a flaying of the administration.

In the Republican mass or rump convention held on Wednesday where pandemonium reigned supreme, the leader of the insurrectionists, who apparently carried the convention with him was ex-Probate Judge Walter A. Irvine, who announced that he is a Hughes man and not a Taft man. This meeting was understood to have been called as a Taft meeting by those claiming to be Taft enthusiasts; yet they followed in the lead of this Hughes champion. Is it now to be understood that Judge Irvine is the Moses who will lead them to the promised land with Hughes as his guiding star? And have followers of Taft forsaken him in order to follow this new prophet?

Tariff reform is the prime issue, says former Governor Douglass of Massachusetts, and he, a manufacturer, further declares that "high protection is the parent of trusts and is responsible for graft and corruption in public and private life." Yet we have a Republican Congress refusing to even consider a reform of such iniquities.

The political upheaval in Japan is due to finance, reports a dispatch from Tokio. Yes, and a political upheaval is due here if the Republicans don't produce a new stock of prosperity.

If the Democrats had been in power when this panic occurred, we all know, from our experience in 1903-06, what the Republicans would have said.

The administration is at last compelled to admit what everyone suspected, that the Panama canal will cost nearly double the official estimate. The American people want the canal and are willing to pay what it honestly costs, so why try to fool them with "cooked figures"?

Another member of Congress, a Republican, broke loose from his fetters and declared in committee of the whole: "You cannot restore the condition of the American people in the

CONGRESSMAN ASHBROOK WANTS MOTTO RESTORED

(Madison Co. Democrat.)
It is indeed refreshing in these days of "advanced thought" and agnosticism in religious belief, that even a congressman, and an Ohio man at that, still retains some good old fashioned ideas about a nation's trust in a divine power, and fearlessly asks that that dependence still be acknowledged on the face of our coinage—just as our forefathers wrought. Representative W. A. Ashbrook, of Ohio, introduced a bill in Congress Monday requiring that the motto "In God We Trust," should be restored to certain coins from which late coinage rulings has had it removed, and that hereafter all such coins shall bear this motto.

CURRENT COMMENT

THERE ALWAYS WILL BE.
It seems that there cannot be a self-perpetuating presidency in this country without a good deal of kicking, even in the Republican party.—Toledo Citizen.

SOCIALISM INFERRED.
A force of policemen has been assigned to guard Miss Vanderbilt's $1,000,000 worth of wedding presents. We may infer a belief in official circles that some persons imagine they need those things more than does Miss Vanderbilt.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

WHY VELL THE REASON?
Possibly the Japanese who are leaving San Francisco for home are moved by the same reason which have prompted the exodus of aliens from this port. Or have the thousands of Italians and Slavs who have departed from New York also been called home as an "army reserve"?—New York World.

ZANESVILLE HOPEFUL.
The Licking Window Glass plant, of Ulica, O., will resume operations next Monday after an idleness of several weeks. This company employs about 200 men. Its plant was located at Ulica in order to take advantage of cheap gas. Cheap gas may yet bring about the establishment of glass factories in Zanesville or in some Muskingum county gas field.—Zanesville Times-Recorder.

EXERCISED CARE.
An Indiana woman who won in a spelling match refused to take the prize, a portrait of Roosevelt. She knew that a woman must be careful in accepting pictures of comparative strangers.—Cleveland Leader.

IT'S TOO DANGEROUS.
Columbia students who protest on having Cornell "co-ed" on debating team lack courage. Because nobody ever could argue with a woman is no reason why they should not try to establish a novel precedent.—New York Herald.

MORE PLEASANT, TOO.
On the same day that a Chicago judge fined a man $50 for kissing an unwilling young woman, a man in Middletown lost $386 through a hole in his pocket—all of which seems to indicate that it is cheaper to kiss a girl than to let one's pocket get out of repair.—New York Herald.

BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OF CITY IS $582,483

The sinking fund trustees have approved the appointment of Archibald Davis by Mayor Atherton as a member of that body, to serve the unexpired term of A. R. Pitzer, elected to the Service Board. Mr. Davis' appointment holds until 1911.

The commission is composed of Messrs. Frank Schimpf, Wm. Prout, E. M. Baucher and Archibald Davis. Mr. Schimpf has been appointed as vice president of the board.

The report of the secretary shows that there was a balance on hand January 1, of $8,231.62. The total bonded indebtedness until January 1, 1908, was $458,942 of which $300,000 was used on the half completed new municipal water works plant and for which a member of the council is urging another bond issue of $85,000. The balance, $183,942, includes bonds for fire department and electric light plant.

Special indebtedness, including all improvements amounts to $90,541, or a total of $582,483.

"NOT GUILTY"

PLEADED ALL PRISONERS WHEN ARRAIGNED SATURDAY BEFORE JUDGE NICHOLSON.

George Moore Charged With Shooting With Intent to Wound to be Tried This Term.

A number of the prisoners indicted by the recent grand jury were brought before Judge Nicholson in Common Pleas court Saturday morning and pleaded to the indictment as follows:

George Moore, shooting with intent to wound, not guilty.

Joseph Colvig, pocket picking, not guilty, and T. L. King was assigned to defend him.

Frank Petroska, cutting with intent to wound, two counts, pleaded not guilty to both counts. Attorneys Miller & Patterson were assigned to defend him in one case and B. R. Nott in the other.

Plumber Marriott, forgery, plea of not guilty.

Petition to Correct Deed.

In the case of Arthur J. Baldwin against William E. White, the plaintiff, by his attorneys, Kibler & Montgomery, has filed an amended petition. He asks the court to correct the description in a deed for certain real estate heretofore conveyed by him to the defendant, located on East Main street, this city.

Verdict for Defendant.

The case of the Centerburg Building and Loan Association company vs. Elizabeth Goff was decided by Judge Nicholson in favor of the defendant. This was an action in ejectment, involving some ground in Erasmus White's addition in West Newark.

Wm. Shamp Wins Case.

In the case of W. M. Shamp vs. Chauncey E. Traxler, in which the defendant charged the plaintiff with having forged certain matters in a receipt in question, the jury found the receipt genuine and returned a verdict for Shamp for $330.65. McDonald and Stasel for Shamp and Kibler & Montgomery for Traxler.

Probate Paragraphs.

The last will and testament of Major David Thomas, deceased, of this city, was admitted to probate Saturday, and his widow, Mrs. Mary F. Thomas was appointed executrix without bond.

The last will and testament of Saffrona M. Pearce, deceased, of this city was admitted to probate Saturday, and Ella J. Smith was appointed executrix. Bond, $3000.

Mrs. Mary A. Swan, probation officer, in the juvenile court, took Jennie Bailey to the Girls' Industrial Home at Delaware Saturday.

The current number of the Ohio Law Bulletin contains a full report of the Johnstown Local Option Case, recently decided by Judge Brister.

Fulton et al vs. Dush et al.

James W. Fulton and Eliza Carver have commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against Elsey F. Dush et al for $1000 alleged to be due on two notes of $500 each, executed by Elsey Dush on January 11, 1906, together with interest on the same. Fulton & Fulton, attorneys for plaintiffs.

Motion Sustained.

Judge Nicholson Saturday morning sustained the motion filed by the P. Smith Son's Lumber company to dismiss the appeal in the case of Charles W. Emmsler against Bert Russel and others.

Columbus Attorney Here.

Attorney John A. Connor of the firm of Marriott, Beicher & Connor, of Columbus, was in the city as one of the attorneys in the Licking Mining case.

GOOD FOR BLOOD

A Good Home Made Remedy, Said to Make Kidneys Filter out the Impurities.

All medical authorities are agreed that the blood is the great source of disease or of health in the human system. If the blood is pure, the individual is strong and healthy, if the blood is impure or diseased then there is sickness or decay in the whole system.

Rheumatism is strictly a blood disease. It is caused by excessive uric acid. Sores, pimples, etc., mean bad blood. Catarrhal affections must be treated through the blood to get permanent results. To get well, to feel strong, hearty and vigorous one must have good clean blood and lots of it. You can't clean the blood thoroughly unless the kidneys are made active. Bad blood means clogged, inactive kidneys and liver which causes, too, such symptoms as backache, nervousness, bladder and urinary difficulties and other sympathetic troubles.

Here is a simple home remedy and the Recipe for making it up is as follows:

Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at small cost.

Here the readers of this paper have a simple yet powerful and effective remedy for all forms of blood, kidney and bladder diseases which should relieve rheumatism and catarrhal affections and replace that weak, worn-out indifferent feeling with strength, vigor and health.

FOURTH WELL

Now Being Drilled by the Southeastern Ohio Gas and Oil Company near Zanesville.

Actual work began Thursday morning on the drilling of well No. 4 by the Southeastern Ohio Gas and Oil company. During the early part of the week the well was located and the machinery moved from well No. 3. The last well is situated on the Cherry farm northwest of well No. 3 a distance of about twelve hundred feet.

The officials of the company are highly elated over the fine showing made from their oil and gas territory and congratulations are the order of the day among the stockholders. Every well drilled by the company on their holdings in the neighborhood of Roseville and Crooksville has been a producer. Not a duster has come in up to the present time.—Zanesville Courier.

OVERTAXED.

Hundreds of Newark Readers Know What It Means.

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backache, sideache, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

Mrs. A. J. Gordon, living on Chestnut street, Dresden, Ohio, says: "I suffered severely from a disordered condition of my kidneys. The passages of the secretions were very frequent at times and at others very scanty and painful and I was very nervous and dizzy and suffered from a constant backache. I used many different remedies but was gradually running down in health when I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. I can conscientiously say that I received more positive relief from their use than from any other remedy. Mr. Gordon has also used Doan's Kidney Pills for a lame back with satisfactory results."

NEGATIVE WON SHARP DEBATE

The second number of the Licking County Debating society was held at Hanover Friday night between Granville and Hanover on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should own and control all railroads."

The affirmative side was taken by Granville, represented by Wright and Wilson and the negative side of the question was taken by Hanover, represented by Weaver and Ridenbaugh. The judges were Prof. Williams, principal of the Newark High school; Superintendent J. C. Wilson of Etna, and Superintendent C. F. Smith of St. Louisville. The judges decided in favor of the negative, the score being two to one.

BEST OF SEASON

WAS FAST BASKETBALL GAME BETWEEN DENISON AND OHIO STATE.

Livingston Stars in First Half, But Fails to Connect in Second—"U" Wins by Ten Points.

Producing just about the same grade of basketball as did the Denison team in last night's game at the "U" gym, Ohio State's five was there in the final period with the stick-tidiness and won the rather roll and tumble frolic by a score of 43 to 23.

Denison showed a total of 21 points when the opening whirl was ended, while Ohio State had that count all but matched with 20 points. Even at the whistle blast, calling time, the score was tied, but a foul by state an instant before gave Captain Livingston a chance to make a free throw. As he dropped the ball in the tie was shattered.

Livingston was the conspicuous player of them all throughout. In the first half he was prominent by what he did do and in the last period by what he didn't do.

Six field goals went down to his credit in that opening half and the making of some of them at long range marked him as a dangerous performer. He missed but one of his four free throws and in a dozen ways showed that he is Denison's mainstay.

During the breathing spell between halves, Center Postle of Ohio State must have taken a pledge to put Livingston on the defensive during the closing 20 minutes. Anyhow the Denison captain was stopped short in the last half and his ability to locate the goal dwindled down to absolutely nothing. He made but four points, all on free throws, as against his 15 of the first half.

With the Denison star covered up all the other players, with the exception of Left Forward Pine, were at sea. Pine was up and coming all the time, getting the last two field goals of the game and thereby putting his team's total above the 30 mark.

By all odds the game was the best of the season. Line-up:

Ohio State 43.	Denison 23
Left Forward.
Barrington	Pine
Right Forward
Atkinson	Little-Flack

MARION ANNOUNCES LINEUP FOR SEASON

Marion, Jan. 25.—Charles M. O'Day manager of the local baseball club, has decided upon most of the players who will compose this year's team, and he is confident that his club will make a great fight for the maiden pennant in the Ohio State league.

Luskey will do the bulk of the backstopping. Fox, Burk, Lucas and two other men yet to be secured, will compose the pitching staff. The infield will be Ingerton, first base; O'Day, second; Mylett, short; King, third.

Tate and Farrell will work in the outfield with a new center fielder who is yet to be secured.

O'Day does not expect any difficulty in controlling the trouble makers of last year's team and the directors of the club have confidence in his ability to manage the unruly ones.

How to Make Your Own Cough Medicine

More effective than any of the patent nostrums for curing coughs or colds is a simple remedy which you can make at home in five minutes at very small expense. Use

Granulated Sugar Syrup, 1 1/2 oz. Pinex

Take three-quarters of a pound of granulated sugar, add water, heat and stir until you have a thick syrup. Any granulated will do, you can use Pinex (1 1/2 oz.) for 50 cents. Mix in a clean pint bottle and shake well. Keep well corked and it will last the family for many months.

Pinex, as you probably know, is the most concentrated form of Norway White Pine Extract.

The best results from this prescription are to be had only by using the pure Pinex. All drug stores have it or can get it easily on request.

SUNDAY CLUB

Will Have an Interesting Session Tomorrow at Y. M. C. A.—Discussion Will Interest.

Sunday there was organized at the Y. M. C. A. an interesting club which meets in the reading room each Sunday after the men's meeting. The purpose of the club is to get together in a sociable way for the discussion of present-day problems and attempt to find the attitude of the teachings of Jesus in the solution of them. The social side of the afternoon is not the least prominent feature. Last Sunday the first discussion proved a very interesting one. The subject for study tomorrow is "Jesus and Human Society." Among other questions for discussion will be "Can a Man be Too Sociable?" Does the solitude of prison life tend to make a prisoner better or worse? Are the best pleasures of life found in human society or apart from it? Is American society too democratic or too exclusive? A lunch will be served following the discussion. All men are welcome to the discussions and lunch. Session begins at 4:15 p. m. and lunch will be served at 5 p. m.

PISO'S CURE
Consumptive Coughs
The first sign of a cold or cough is a warning that you are being attacked by the germ of consumption. If you do not cure it quickly, it will become a chronic cough, and you will be a sufferer from consumption. PISO'S CURE is the only remedy that cures the germ of consumption at the root of the disease. It restores the lungs to their normal condition, and cures the cough. It is a sure cure for all coughs and colds.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

BLOOD

FLOWED WHEN OLD WOUND IN THROAT OF MIAH WITNESS WAS REOPENED.

From Strain of Telling How Her Lover Attacked Her and Then Attempted Suicide.

Anderson, Ind., 25.—Although on the witness stand two days with testimony against Shirley Doyle, her former lover, who is accused of having cut her throat and then attempted suicide, Miss Lydia Scott may not live to hear the verdict of the jury.

Racked in mind by humiliation in court, and crushed yesterday when a score or more of her love letters were read in open court, and her wounded throat strained until she suffered a hemorrhage of the throat, the girl was a wreck last night.

Miss Scott seemed to choke, but she was hard pressed for her testimony until suddenly blood appeared on her lip. She caught it with her handkerchief. Judge McClure noticed it and excused the witness.

For an hour afterward in the Judge's private office blood came from the girl's throat by the reopening of the old wound inflicted by a razor three years ago.

Doyle was put on the stand later in the afternoon. He testified that Miss Scott was jealous of him, thought he was going to see another girl on that Sunday, and while out buggy riding after a quarrel she attacked him with a razor and cut him twice on the neck.

A few minutes later, and while in the buggy, Doyle testified that Miss Scott cut her own throat, and later told him she wanted to die.

MANSFIELD BEATEN

Newark High Trims Them to the Tune of 31 to 21—Reception and Banquet.

The basket ball game at the "Y" 5 p.m. Friday night between Newark High and the Mansfield boys was very fast. Both teams played sensationally. Mansfield owes its defeat to the accurate passing of the Newark lads. Mansfield's scoring was evenly divided, each forward making three field goals. For Newark "Ham" Lewis was the star scorer from the field, while Perry was the goods on foul goals, throwing six.

A return game will be played at Mansfield February 21.

After the game Friday both the teams were banqueted by the Newark High school young ladies at the home of the Misses Woodward, and a splendid time was enjoyed by all.

The score: Newark 31, Mansfield 21.

DON'T BLAME HER

For she cannot help it. Women are often cross, irritable, hysteric, and declare they are driven to distraction at the slightest provocation. Men cannot understand why this should be so. To them it is a mystery because in nine times out of ten this condition is caused by a serious feminine derangement.

A remedy is necessary which acts directly upon the organs afflicted, restoring a healthy normal condition to the feminine system, which will quickly dispel all hysterical, nervous and irritable conditions. Such is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

The following letter serves to prove this fact.

Mrs. Mattie Coppenhaver, 315 So. 21st St., Parsons, Kans., writes:

"For two years I suffered from the worst form of female ills, until I was almost driven frantic. Nothing but morphine would relieve me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness and made me a well woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration, etc.

Why don't you try it? Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

PISTOL DUEL IN THE STREET

Gallipolis, O., Jan. 25.—A pistol duel in the street occurred at Vinton 15 miles from here, between Justice of the Peace Oscar Clark and George Summers, colored, who had been forcing his attentions upon Squire Clark's daughter against her wishes. Summers was shot twice, but will recover. Squire Clark was arrested and fined.

A Reliable Remedy for the Whiskey and Beer Habit.

Very few men become drunkards because they like liquor. It is frequently the moderate drinkers, who, before he realizes his condition, has become a drunkard. The nervous system, having become accustomed to stimulants, is unable to do the same amount or quality of work without liquor, hence the victim drinks more and more. This is a state of disease and should be treated by Dr. Orin. It destroys the desire for liquor so that the drink is not missed. There is no loss of time or detention from work when it is used.

Dr. Orin is prepared in two forms: No. 1, the secret remedy, which can be used in food or drink without the knowledge of the patient; No. 2, for those who take the remedy of their own free will. Both forms are guaranteed. A registered guarantee in every box. Treatise on how to cure drunkenness free on request. The Orin Co., Washington, D. C. The price of either form is $1 a box, making the cost of the complete cure less than one-tenth what is usually charged at sanitariums, with a guarantee that the expense will be nothing unless a cure is gained. Mail orders filled in plain sealed package on receipt of price.

Orin is for sale by Frank D. Hall.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS

Railroad Notes.
As one of the signs of returning prosperity it is cited that the Lake Shore has received orders for upwards of 700 empty grain cars to the west for the movement of crops.

Kodaks to be Used.
Kodaks are to be used by the secret service bureau of many railroads in a determined effort by the railroad officials to stamp out the liquor habit among employees, particularly engineers, trainmen and those who have to do with the operation of signals and switches. A tour of the saloons in the neighborhood of round-houses and headquarters for trainmen will be made. The unfortunate railroader who occasionally imbibes, will be liable to have his picture taken in the act of drinking. He will be confronted with this evidence and will clearly understand the reason for his dismissal.

Bill for Widows and Orphans.
In the lower branch of Congress a bill is pending to so amend the interstate law that it will be legal for railroads to give free transportation to widows and orphans of deceased employees and their minor children.

Annual Watch Inspection.
The annual watch inspection on the Pan Handle division of the Pennsylvania lines west, has been started, and will continue until the first of the coming month, says the Wheeling Intelligencer. This inspection made yearly, is of great importance, as it is largely upon the accuracy of the timepieces of train men that depends the safety of the traveling public. The work generally consumes about three weeks. Owing to the comparatively small number of employees in the immediate vicinity, an inspecting station has not been established here, but local employees are required to go to Colliers or Steubenville in order to have their watches tested. Pittsburg division employees, however, are required to stop at the company inspecting stations in Pittsburg.

Freight Conditions Improving.
Considerable improvement is reported by traffic men in the east bound movement of freight. There is more general betterment among industries in the eastern part of the country than anywhere, but the condition is reported as slowly improving.

Will Close Temporarily.
It is expected that when the first day of March appears on the calendar a lot of night telegraph offices on the railroads will be closed temporarily. Unless business picks up to some extent, this move is certain to come. The roads have been, up to the last few weeks establishing third truck offices at many points in order to have their working force of telegraph operators complete by the time the new law goes into effect, requiring eight hour tricks.

BELIEVED

THAT DETSCH THOUGHT FERREE WAS A BURGLAR WHEN HE SHOT

And the Jury in Philadelphia Murder Trial Acquitted Defendant—The Verdict Was Popular.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 25.—After trial of three days Andrew Jackson Detsch charged with murdering Harry Ferree in a boarding house in this city last November was acquitted late Friday afternoon. The jury was out nearly three hours. The announcement of the verdict caused an enthusiastic demonstration.

On the night of November 5 policemen heard shots and traced them to the house. In front of the door of the Detsch apartments, they found Ferree dead with three bullets in his body. Detsch declared that he heard some on trying to get into the room and thinking it was a burglar, shot four times through the door.

The police contended that Detsch learned of alleged misconduct between his wife and Ferree and caused his wife to lure Ferree to her room.

BURGLAR

CAUGHT "RED HANDED" IN WEST NEWARK SALOON BY OFFICER PETREY.

Brought Over to Grand Jury—Officers Pledge Themselves to Support New Chief.

Officer Clarence Petrey made a nice catch early this morning, while patrolling his beat in the West End and as a result of his bravery, Joan M. Courtney, a burglar, is resting in the city prison because of his failure to furnish a $500 bond.

The policeman when trying the doors along Williams street, noticed an unusual light in the saloon of John Wells, and cautiously investigated. It didn't take him long to see he had "treed his bird," and that the man was even then at work robbing the place. Petrey pulled his revolver and entered the place and placed the nippers on his man, who offered no resistance.

The patrol was called and McCartney sent to the city prison in charge of Waggonman Brown. An examination was made of the building and premises and it was found the man had entered the saloon through a rear window which he had broken out. He had piled several dollars worth of tobacco, cigars and whisky on top of the bar and when arrested was behind the bar getting some stuff together.

When searched some old coins were found on his person, among them being half dollars of 1819, 1836 and 1846. When brought out in police court this morning he pleaded guilty to entering the place, but told a funny story of going in when there was another man in there.

The saloon of Dennis Conley, 22 South Second street, was also entered some time Friday night, but other than a few old coins nothing of value was taken. Since some old coins were found in the possession of McCartney it is more than probable he was concerned in the burglary at Conley's. Mr. Conley will be called to identify the coins however. The police have also requested Mr. Shonberg, the junk dealer, whose place of business is on South Fourth street, and who was robbed last week, and also lost a few old coins, to examine the old pieces of money to see if he can identify them.

If the coins are identified by the two men, McCartney will then face three burglary charges. He claims to be a molder by trade and says he is employed at Wehrle's.

The retirement of James S. Sheridan as chief of police, has caused a great deal of comment about the city, and especially in the police department. The patrolmen have pledged themselves to the support of the new chief, whoever he may be, and several of them will take the examination for the office as chief.

Should the other "strap" office become vacant several of the patrolmen will compete for this office. The two vacancies then made on the force by the promotion of the two men will rapidly be filled as many men have put in their applications for the office.

Marshal Powell, who was wanted with Harry Buckingham for the "job" done at Henry Krupp's saloon on South Second street, appeared in police court this morning, and was given a stiff lecture and was also fined for contempt of court by Mayor Sherman. Powell was out on bail and failed to appear the other morning when ordered to do so.

A cup of coffee, a bit of sausage, and Mrs. Austin's buckwheat cakes is a breakfast fit for a king.

Strangely enough many a man who climbs up on the water wagon to get out of the wet.

CHECK WORKER STILL AT LARGE

"Mr. Slick, the Man of Mystery, or in other words the unknown check worker is still at large and in spite of all the efforts of the police no clue to his identity has been obtained. So far Newark has proved very unprofitable for his operations and he has been unable to cash any of the phony bits of paper that he has been passing around among the merchants and bankers.

Most of the business men have been kept well informed of his actions and his description by the papers, and this is probably one of the reasons why the checks he writes with pencil and signs many different names to, have not been cashed.

The general opinion is that the man is unbalanced mentally, and his insanity has taken this turn. He has not been working for the past few days, and Wednesday was the last time any one has reported to the police that the checks have been presented. The police are working on the case and before long the guilty person will probably be apprehended.

HOW HARRY FLEAS, THE MONK, BECAME HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION

THE FOXY MICE GIVE PUSS ANOTHER WHIRL

LATE BLOUSES & COSTUMES

THE pretty costume (221-626) is of excellent style and simple enough for home-making. The blouse is of exceptionally pretty shaping. The front fullness is laid in three deep tucks at the shoulders and softly gathered into the belt at the waistline. The sleeves may be long or in three-quarter length, the shorter one finished by turned-back cuffs. The skirt is a stylish four-gored model, simple and practical for general wear, or suitable for a costume. Pleats are laid in front and back and at each side, and are stitched flat around the hips and well pressed to the lower edge, which is given the fashionable flare. The pattern provides for round, short-round and instep length. Broadcloth, taffeta, henrietta and voile are all suggested for the making. For 36 inches bust measure, 2 3/4 yards of 44-inch material will be required for the waist, and 5 1/4 yards for the skirt.

Ladies' Blouse. No. 221. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.
Ladies' Four-Gored Skirt. No. 626. Sizes for 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure.

The graceful costume (5977-5663) represents one of the newest and prettiest of the season's styles, and is decidedly smart. The waist in over-blouse effect is laid in deep pleats and opens down to the waistline in front, disclosing an under-blouse of ruffled net. The short sleeves are in modified kimono style and the neck is prettily finished by a broad collar. The skirt is one of the most pleasing among the styles of the season, and shows the popular fancy for the corsage effect in front. Large fabric covered buttons form the only decoration for both skirt and waist. The design will be found very simple for home-making and adaptable to most of the season's suitings, such as broadcloth, voile, cashmere, taffeta, and foulard. For 36 inches bust measure, 1 1/2 yards of 36-inch material will be required for the waist and 4 3/4 yards for the skirt.

Ladies' Over-Waist. No. 5977. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.
Ladies' Skirt in plain or corsage effect. No. 5663. Sizes for 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure.
The simplicity of design No. 764 is one of the strongest points in its favor. The style is one well suited to the stout or matronly figure, as the long graceful lines tapering in at the waist aid greatly in giving the effect of slenderness. A fitted lining gives support to the waist, although it may be omitted if desired. A pretty feature of the mode is a pointed yoke of transparent lace, to which the full vest portion is gathered. As shown in the illustration, pale gray peau de soie was chosen for the making, but cashmere, voile, chiffon, taffeta and pongee will all be excellent for reproduction. For 36-inch bust measure, 3 yards of 37-inch material will be required.

Ladies' Waist. No. 764. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44-inch bust.
Model No. 695 is admirable for wear with the separate skirt or in a costume. The fronts lap slightly in double-breasted style, and the open neck discloses a dainty chemise of embroidery. The sleeves are in three-quarter length, and the novel arrangement of the tucks in the lower part add to the attractiveness of the mode. All the season's waistings are adaptable, such as challis, cashmere, silk and linen.

For 36-inch bust measure, 2 3/4 yards of material 36 inches wide will be required.
Ladies' Shirtwaist. No. 695. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.
Patterns will be sent to any address on receipt of ten cents each, by Marjorie Lane, 43 West Thirty-fourth street, New York City.
To avoid delay, do not fail to state size of pattern desired, and be sure to write name and address plainly.

NEW STYLES IN UNDERWEAR

THIS is the ideal season of the year for setting fine stitches in hand-made underwear. The long evenings by lamp-light are trying on the eyes if the worker uses dark materials, but even fine embroidery on white is not apt to injure the eyesight. Then, too, there are so many afternoons when women are storm-bound and whole days when relatives and friends come to visit and the regulation family sewing must be laid aside.

With all these opportunities for setting odd stitches, no woman can afford to be without the materials for dainty lingerie. And in the matter of materials she may follow any fancy and still be in style. For heavy, laundry-proof underwear, there is nothing better than the medium-weight long cloth, which has entirely succeeded both muslin and cambric. The preferred decoration for this is English eyelet work with mercerized floss in rather broad, heavy conventional patterns. Long cloth is also preferred for the snug-fitting princess models in lingerie. The lighter weight fabrics lend themselves better to frills and tucks.

What is known as Union, which is really a strong lawn, and nainsook come next in weight, though undoubtedly the nainsook is the better investment. These show a combination stitching, the convent or satin embroidery with the English eyelet work. And last, in the sheer materials, come the novelty goods like dimity, all-over embroidery and China silk. The last is not so extravagant as its name implies, for a really washable China or Japanese silk will wear as long, if not longer, than a fine nainsook or dimity.

The wash silks are embroidered in satin or convent stitches, with buttonholed eyelets for running the ribbons.

The dimities, especially if striped or cross-barred, lend themselves best to tucking with a finish of lace, while lace or machine embroidery is used to trim corset covers made from all-over embroidery.

This being the hipless season, the rage for combination garments is at its height. The combination corset covers and drawers look like short skirts attached to waists, and are perfectly fitted over the hips. They are much trimmed, however, about the knees, and with such flouncing take the place of the short petticoat. Many of the new corset covers stop right at the waist line in a smooth, snug-fitting band, and few peplums are employed. However, the average woman thinks too much of protecting her corsets against colored petticoats to do away with the peplum, which affords this protection. Only the woman with the very pronounced hips needs to dispense with this protection for her expensive corsets, which are bound to show grey after continued contact with undershirts.

The chemise is much worn by thin women, and for this pretty garment the ruffle finish at the bottom is indispensable. In French underwear of the better class the unruined chemise is seldom if ever seen. Many of the new chemises are semi-fitting in the back and very carefully shaped over the shoulders.

Eyelets, finished with buttonhole stitching for the wash ribbons, are used on corset covers, chemises and night dresses, and fine beading covers the joining of ruffles on drawers, the bottom of chemises and skirts. And wherever it is possible, the preferred finish on garments and ruffles is the scallop done with mercerized floss. Even the China silk underwear is scalloped and worked with matching silk.

ETIQUETTE OF THE EVENING CALL

FIRST and foremost, all young men who have reached the age to count calling among their pastimes should have cards engraved. These need not be used on informal occasions, but for all formal affairs, for homes where your name is not familiar, for the purpose of enclosing them with gifts and sending regrets, cards are a necessity. Cards should be engraved with the full name, prefixed by the title "Mr.," such as "Mr. John Henry Smith." Addresses on men's cards are seldom used. The eldest or only daughter of the household should have cards reading "Miss Robinson," while younger girls of the family must use their full names, such as "Miss Mary Louise Robinson."

A young man, in calling, should remove his hat and coat and leave them in the hall, or if no place is provided for them there, he should lay them on a chair in the parlor near the door. If he is wearing gloves, his right one should be removed before shaking hands with his hostess. It is extremely bad form for a man to keep on his overcoat while in a lady's parlor, no matter how short his stay. And the man who twirls his cane and plays with his gloves during the evening is to be laughed at. If the girl's mother comes into the room, he must rise to greet her. In cities, eight o'clock is the earliest hour for calling, but in country towns they can be made as early as seven-thirty.

If a young man has been entertained by a married woman—has been a guest at a dance she gave, or has dined at her table—he must call on her within two weeks after that event. Because she is married will not release you from this obligation. Sunday afternoons is a nice time for such call, as you will find her husband at home, as a rule, and probably have a nice family chat; but the call must be made if you have accepted hospitality. Any time after three o'clock on Sunday afternoons is proper time for calling.

It is always the proper thing for a man to ask permission of a girl to call. This seems to be a sorely perplexing question. There are rare occasions when a woman takes the initiative, but the rule is that the man must ask the girl. It is for him to show the desire to pay that much attention to her, to let her know he wants to call. Having asked for this privilege, the young man should call within a few days and stay only a short time for the first time. Lengths of calls vary. An hour is the average call, and no man should stay until his hostess is bored. Ten o'clock is time to go home, unless you know the girl and her family very well, but no man should stay later than eleven—not even if he is engaged to the girl.

If a man is calling in company with ladies, even if they are members of his own family, he must wait for them to give the signal for leaving. After the ladies have said their farewells, then he must bid the hostess good-night and follow the ladies from the room.

A man who has been an usher or best man at the wedding of a friend must call upon the bride and groom within a couple of weeks after their return to their new home. Since you probably know the groom very well, it is a good idea to call him up by telephone, asking if it will be convenient to have you call on such and such a night. You can, in that way, arrange a mutually convenient evening.

If you live in a city where it is possible for you to entertain the newlymarried couple, you should. Take them to the theatre, or to dinner at some fashionable restaurant, or do something to show your appreciation of the honor they paid you in asking you to be an attendant at their wedding. If you live in a smaller town and the bride is a stranger, or has not met your family, then you should ask sister to call upon her. I think this is a fault among many young men—paying no attention to the obligations they owe to a married woman.

Try not to be wholly selfish in your calls. If a girl is ill and you cannot see her personally, you should call at the house of her family and make inquiries about her, leaving a card. Perhaps some girl on whom you have been calling has lost a parent or some member of her immediate family. As soon as you hear of this, you should call at the house, leaving a card and asking the maid if there is anything that you might do. These are calls of common politeness, and simply must be made.

There are times when a man finds it impossible to accept certain invitations, owing to previous engagements, lack of time, or other good reasons. But the fact that he has been invited is sufficient reason for his owing that would-be hostess a call. In other words, whether you accept or decline an invitation to a dinner, a dance, etc., you must call upon the hostess within a fortnight. There are times when a man who has never called upon a girl wishes to take her to a dance or some entertainment. This is not good form. Let him ask permission to call at her home some evening, and while there he may ask her if she would like to go to the dance. No girl should accept such an invitation from a man who has never called upon her.

HOW DO YOU PUT ON YOUR HAT?

THIS may seem like a senseless question, and you may say, quite indignantly, "Why, there is only one way to put it on!" Here you are mistaken. Since the introduction of the enormously large hats, there seems to be at least twenty ways of putting them on—most of which are atrocious. Do you wear yours so far back that it almost rests on your shoulders? Do you tilt it on one side until you have to walk with your head on the other to balance it? Does your hat sit so badly in the head that you have to strain to hold the hat in place? Have you a great hat that you wear with a bit of hair, and in order to keep it on, put six hairpins in it at different points, each separate pin sticking out, giving you the appearance of a porcupine?

These are a few of the abuses to which the present day hat is subjected. None is necessary, and all are exceedingly bad style. Hats are certainly unusually large this season, and you must have a great deal of hair to make them look well. If nature has not been kind enough to give you an abundance, then you must buy some, else the hat will look top-heavy. And because a few extremists are wearing their hats sliding down the back of their heads, that is no reason why you should follow the example. Rather, copy the conservative woman who is never at the height of fashion, yet always well within its limits.

Hats should be worn off the face, and hairpins should be purchased for each hat. Three are sufficient, even for a large shape. Purchase pins that harmonize with the coloring of the hat, and of the proper length. If your hat is small in the crown, you need rather short pins. If it has a large, flat crown, then you will need long ones. No pin should stick out more than an inch.

If you want your hat to tilt to one side, you cannot secure this effect by wearing it way over on one ear. You should put a very high bandeau on the left side in the crown, but put the hat on your head straight. The bandeau will give you the proper one-sided effect, and you will have no trouble to keep the hat on with the three pins of proper size.

Then, too, be sure that your hat fits you. Few women can buy a hat ready-made that fits comfortably. If it is too large in the crown, it will come down too low on the forehead, while, on the other hand, if it is too small, it will "wobble" around and never stay in its place. Hence, be sure that the hat fits. Wear a veil, by all means, but not for the purpose of keeping your hat in place—rather, to keep the hair neat and to protect the face from wind and cold.

See that the veil you wear either matches your hat or else harmonizes with it. Do not wear a purple veil with a brown hat, a green veil over a red one. If you cannot afford a variety of these face coverings, select brown as a color that will go with anything. Brown is also the most becoming veiling that can be worn during cold weather. Blue veils make one look purple, black veils are only becoming to blondes, white veils soil the face and three wearings. A brown veil casts a glow on the skin.

Many girls have only one hat. This is most extravagant, and yet they will tell you they can afford only one. I saw a girl last week on a wet and windy day. She had on what I presume was her "only" hat. It was a soft grey felt, trimmed with plumes and velvet flowers, a really beautiful hat. Over this she had tied a large, faded light blue chiffon veil. It covered almost the entire hat, then was brought down and tied under her chin. I can think of no more dreadful picture. I am sure that the money she had invested in the flimsy veil would have purchased a plain little felt sailor, and I am also sure that she could have found a piece of ribbon or velvet in her purse bag to make a band around the plain hat. Then she would have had her dress hat for clear days and her simple hat for rainy days.

Pineapple Creams: Take a jar of canned pineapple at the fresh fruit. Drain the slices and add warm fine Beat this up with sugar and a pinch of cream. You can and will keep in glass. It must be served as a cold treat.

Chocolate Cookies: One cup of butter, one cup of sugar, one cup of flour, one cup of cocoa, one cup of baking powder. Roll very thin and bake quickly.

TASTY COOKERY OF COMMON VEGETABLES

IF the dinner preparations and other household duties are properly organized or planned, the common winter vegetables can be cooked as inexpensively as canned goods, and are far more palatable. But, when vegetables require long cooking, they should be served on a day when boiled or steamed meats, puddings and other slow dishes are to be served, making one fire do for all. Here are some good recipes for winter vegetables:

Fresh Carrots and Canned Peas: Select eight carrots of uniform small size, scrape, pare and wash. Slice them about a quarter of an inch thick. Lay them in a saucepan with two sprays of parsley, two very small onions, half teaspoon of salt, two salt-spoons of white pepper, a teaspoon of sugar, half pint of hot water, or better still, of white broth with teaspoonful of butter. Simmer for five minutes then set the pan in a moderate oven for twenty-five minutes. Remove from the fire and take out carefully the onions and the parsley. Add a cup of canned peas, from which the juice has been poured, and which have been heated in a teaspoon of butter. Set back on the stove, stir gently for a minute, pour into a hot vegetable dish and sprinkle lightly with chopped parsley.

Fried Parsnips: Boil six medium-sized parsnips at any time when you are using the fire for other purposes. While still warm, peel carefully and lay them aside to cool. When ready to cook the second time, cut them in slices, either across or lengthwise, about a third of an inch thick. Four over them a very little lemon juice and half teaspoon of salt, a little pepper, and, if you like the flavor, a tablespoon of olive oil. Let them stand thus for half an hour. There are two ways of frying them. You can brown them in butter, or you can dip them in a batter made of flour, eggs and milk, and then drop them in boiling lard as you would fritters. The use of the lemon juice prevents that flat flavor to which some families object.

Bean Croquettes: One pint of uncooked beans, one-half pint of grated bread, one tablespoon of chopped parsley, two tablespoons of melted butter, two eggs and one small onion grated, salt and pepper to taste. Soak the beans in cold water over night, boil them till soft and rub through a sieve. To this pulp add the other ingredients, mix well, form into balls, dip into an egg, then cracker dust, and fry in deep lard until golden brown.

White Beans Francaise: Soak one pint of small white beans over night. Two hours before dinner drain them and put them over a fire in two quarts of cold water. For seasoning, add a tablespoon of salt, a teaspoon of white pepper, two small onions cut in half, three small branches of parsley, and a sprig of bay leaf tied together. Add half a pound of salt pork which has been washed, cover the pan tightly and cook slowly for two hours. Now, in another saucepan, melt two tablespoons of butter, add one medium onion, chopped, and three tablespoons of flour. While cooking stir for five minutes. Then pour off the gravy from the beans and add it to the mixture in the second saucepan. Stir and boil two minutes. Remove from the beans the salt pork, herbs and onion halves, adding the beans alone to the sauce. Bring to a boil and serve. This is a popular dish with French peasants.

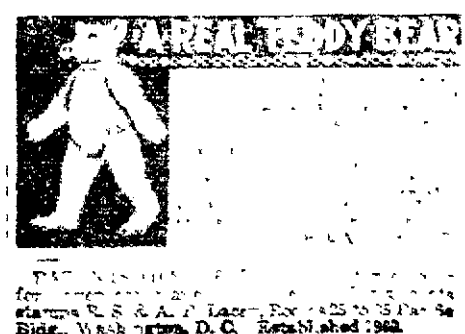

Stuffed Cabbage: Cleanse, cook and boil a large head of cabbage until tender, then remove the inside leaving enough for a solid wall. With the scrapings mix a cup of fine bread crumbs, a little salt, pepper and a color seed and one small onion (if liked) chopped fine. Put this in with a tablespoon of melted butter and three eggs. Fill the cabbage with this stuffing, tie around it a strip of cloth and bake until in water.

MISCELLANEOUS RECIPES

Finan Haddock in Cream. This smells to heaven and hence is often exchanged for fastidious housewives, but how much do love it! Say "cramped Finan haddock" to a man who knows anything about restaurant life in a big city, and he becomes your admirer. "Finan haddock" is a chef d'oeuvre and becomes your slave. Buy a pound of fat smoked haddock. Cut in half, squares, plunge into boiling water for five minutes, drain and set aside. When you are ready to use your good dish, place in the chafin dish on a bed of butter, and when it is hot add a quantity of cream (this can be about a half teaspoon of each). When smothered together, add half a cup of cream, cream and milk, and a pinch of salt. Let the mixture simmer for a few minutes, and then add a little cream and a pinch of salt. Let the mixture simmer for a few minutes, and then add a little cream and a pinch of salt.

Date Cake: One cup of sugar, half cup of molasses, half cup of butter, one cup of flour, one cup of cocoa, one cup of baking powder. Roll very thin and bake quickly.

MAKING THINGS AT HOME

There is no end to the possibilities of ribbon for making things at home. All girls like fancy ornaments to wear in their hair for evening entertainments. These must all be attached to a medium-sized bone hair pin. Take, for instance, a pink rose and sew a few gold spangles upon the leaves. Then get a yard and a half of pink satin ribbon, width No. 5, double-faced, and make a wired bow with no ends, but all loops. At the base of the bow, sew the pink rose and slip the hair pin through it, fastened securely with strong thread. Such a prize is always in demand. This idea can be carried out in other colorings, such as a blue bow with tiny blue feather tip, or lavender ribbon with a large velvet pansy.

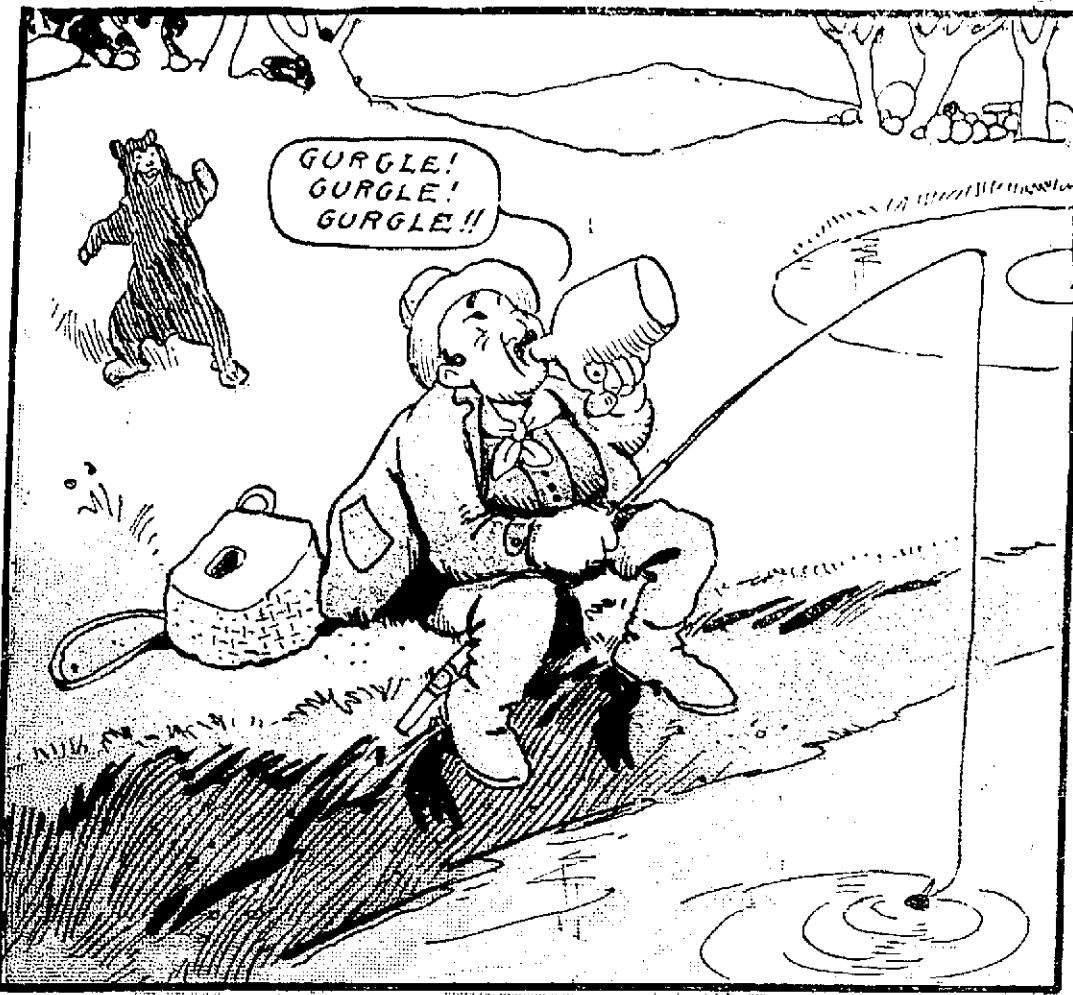

Another possibility of the use of ribbon is the making of girdles and belts. If a belt is to be made, you should have a whalebone in front where it is finished, and three hooks and eyes. Then cut from cardboard a large square buckle and cover this with shirred ribbon like the goods of the belt. Dresden ribbon is used almost altogether for this purpose, and some of the colorings are charming.

Bags are to be seen in a hundred varieties. Bags for edited neckwear or handkerchiefs are made from the large figured handkerchiefs, run with ribbon around the top. Bags of silk and satin come for the girl who does much fancy work. Rather a new idea is what is known as the "ribbon bag." This can be made of any material, but has little pockets on the inside to hold the various bolts of ribbon that girls use on their underwear. Attached to the bag is a needle case, on which are found two bodkins, one large and one small, and several needles. In one of the pockets are found three spoons of thread, one of pink silk, one of blue silk and one of white cotton for mending. At one side is found a pair of small scissors for cutting the ribbons to the desired length. These bags can be made as elaborate as your purse allows by filling with bolts of pink and blue ribbon of various widths, silver thimble, etc.

English Shirred Eggs: In order to cook eggs in this manner you should have shirred egg dishes, which can be purchased at any crockery store. Cut six very thin slices of bacon, then cut each slice in half again. Lightly butter six individual shirred-egg dishes, heat them on the range arrange two pieces of bacon on each dish and let them cook on both sides for two minutes or more. Carefully crack two eggs in each dish, season with salt and pepper, and bake with little melted butter. Set them in the oven, which should be very hot, for three minutes, then remove and serve on the dishes they were cooked in.
